Jurisdiction

The Court finds that the pleadings are proper and citation was properly served on all necessary parties as required by law. The Court, having examined the pleadings and having heard the evidence and argument of counsel, finds that no other court has continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over this suit and that it has jurisdiction over the parties and matters in this proceeding.

Children of the Suit

The Court finds that the following child[ren] [is/are] the subject of this suit:

Name	Gender	Birth Date
{list each child}

Findings

{Change in circumstances for children: The Court finds that the circumstances of the child[ren] have materially and substantially changed since the date of the {Original order not based on written settlement agreement: rendition of the Order} {Original order is based on written settlement agreement: signing of a mediated or collaborative law settlement agreement on which the Order is based.}}

{Change in circumstances for conservator: The Court finds that the circumstances of a conservator of the child[ren] have materially and substantially changed since the date of the {Original order not based on written settlement agreement: rendition of the Order} {Original order is based on written settlement agreement: signing of a mediated or collaborative law settlement agreement on which the Order is based}.}

{Change in circumstances for affected party: The Court finds that the circumstances of a party affected by the Order have materially and substantially changed since the date of the {Original order not based on written settlement agreement: rendition of the Order} {Original order is based on written settlement agreement: signing of a mediated or collaborative law settlement agreement on which the Order is based}.}

{Preference expressed by child (loop for children who expressed preference): The Court finds that [Name of child who expressed preference] has expressed to the Court in chambers as provided by Section 153.009 of the Texas Family Code the name of the person who is the child's preference to have the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child.}

{Possession relinquished: The Court finds that [Name of conservator who relinquished possession], the conservator who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child[ren], has voluntarily relinquished the primary care and possession of the child[ren] to another person for at least six months. The Court further finds that [Name of conservator who relinquished possession] has not temporarily relinquished the primary care and possession of the child[ren] to another person during military deployment, military mobilization, or temporary military duty, as those terms are defined by Section 153.701 of the Texas Family Code.}

{Findings of death of conservator: The Court finds that [Name of conservator who died], [a joint managing conservator/ the sole managing conservator/ the possessory conservator], died on [date], causing a material and substantial change related to the [conservatorship/possession and access] of the child[ren] sufficient to justify a modification of the previous order.}

{Conviction for continual sexual abuse: The Court finds that [Name(s) of parties convicted of continued sexual abuse] [was/were] convicted of an offense under Section 21.02 of the Texas Penal Code.}

{Conviction for indecency with a child: The Court finds that [Name(s) of parties convicted of indecency with a child] [was/were] convicted or received deferred adjudication for an offense involving the abuse of a child under Section 21.11 of the Texas Penal Code.}

{Conviction for sexual assault: The Court finds that [Name(s) of parties convicted of sexual assault] [was/were] convicted or received deferred adjudication for an offense involving the abuse of a child under Section 22.011 of the Texas Penal Code.}

{Conviction for aggravated sexual assault: The Court finds that [Name(s) of parties convicted of aggravated sexual assault] [was/were] convicted or received deferred adjudication for an offense involving the abuse of a child under Section 22.021 of the Texas Penal Code.}

{Conviction for family violence: The Court finds that [Name(s) of parties convicted of family violence] [was/were] convicted or received deferred adjudication for an offense involving family violence.}

{Modification of residence within one year of prior order: The Court finds that the suit seeking to modify was filed not later than one year after the {Original order not based on written settlement agreement: rendition of the Order} {Original order is based on written settlement agreement: signing of a mediated or collaborative law settlement agreement on which the Order is based}.}

{Change of residence within one year because of dangerous environment: The Court finds that the child[ren]'s present environment may endanger the child[ren]'s physical health or significantly impair the child[ren]'s emotional development.}

{Change of residence within one year because primary conservator consents: The Court finds that [primary conservator], the person who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child[ren], consents to the modification requested by [Movant(s)] and the modification is in the best interest of the child[ren].}

{Change of residence within one year because its in the best interest of the child: The Court finds that [primary conservator] is the person who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child[ren] and the modification is in the best interest of the child[ren].

{Change of residence within one year because of relinquished possession: The Court finds that [conservator who relinquished possession], the person who has the exclusive right to designate the primary residence of the child[ren], has voluntarily relinquished the primary care and possession of the child[ren] to another person for at least six months and the modification is in the best interest of the child[ren]. The Court further finds that [conservator who relinquished possession] has not temporarily relinquished the primary care and possession of the child[ren] to another person as the result of a military deployment, military mobilization, or temporary military duty, as those terms are defined by Section 153.701 of the Texas Family Code.}

{Risk of international abduction: The Court finds that there is credible evidence indicating a potential risk of the international abduction of the child[ren] of this suit by [party at risk for abducting child].}

{More than 3 years since order, differs by 20% or $100: The Court finds that it has been three years since the Order was rendered or last modified and the monthly amount of the child support award under the Order differs by either 20 percent or $100 from the amount that would be awarded in accordance with the child support guidelines.}

{Obligors released from incarceration: The Court finds that [Name of obligor released from incarceration] was released from incarceration and the child support obligation was abated, reduced, or suspended during the period of the incarceration.}

{Support does not conform to guidelines: The Court finds that the amount of support contained in the Order does not substantially conform with the guidelines for single and multiple families under Chapter 154 of the Texas Family Code.

{Duty to support children in more than one household: The Court finds that [obligor] has the duty to support children in more than one household.}}

{Voluntary relinquishment of possession: The Court finds that [Name conservator who relinquished possession], the conservator who has the exclusive right to determine the primary residence of the child, has voluntarily relinquished the primary care and possession of the child[ren] and [person with possession of children] has had physical possession of the child[ren] for at least six months.}

{Possession relinquished due to incarceration: The Court finds that [conservator who relinquished possession], the conservator who has the exclusive right to determine the primary residence of the child[ren], has been incarcerated or sentenced to be incarcerated for at least 90 days and [person with possession of children] has had physical possession of the child[ren] for at least six months.}

{Relinquishment of possession in proceeding: The Court finds that [conservator who relinquished possession], the conservator who has the exclusive right to determine the primary residence of the child[ren], has relinquished the primary care and possession of the child[ren] in a proceeding under Title 3 or Chapter 262 of the Texas Family Code and [person with possession of children] has had physical possession of the child[ren] for at least six months.}

{Entered into authorization agreement: The Court finds that [Name of Conservator who relinquished possession], the conservator who has the exclusive right to determine the primary residence of the child[ren], and [Name of person in possession], the person having physical possession of the child[ren] for at least six months, entered into an authorization agreement under Chapter 34 of the Texas Family Code.}

{Child enrolled in high school: {Child in accredited secondary school: The Court finds that [name of child] is over 18 years of age and is enrolled under Chapter 25 of the Texas Education Code in an accredited secondary school program leading toward a high school diploma and is complying with the minimum attendance requirements of Chapter 25, Subchapter C of the Texas Education Code.}

{Child enrolled in joint high school/junior college: The Court finds that [name of child] is over 18 years of age and is enrolled under Section 130.008 of the Texas Education Code in courses for joint high school and junior college credit and is complying with the minimum attendance requirements of Chapter 25, Subchapter C of the Texas Education Code.}

{Child enrolled in private secondary school: The Court finds that [name of child] is over 18 years of age and is enrolled on a full-time basis in a private secondary school program leading toward a high school diploma and is complying with the minimum attendance requirements imposed by the school.}}

{Obligor incarcerated more than 180 days: The Court finds that [name of obligor incarcerated], a child support obligor, is incarcerated in a local, state, or federal jail or prison for a period exceeding 180 days, causing a material and substantial change of circumstances related to child support sufficient to justify a modification of the previous order.}

{Health coverage not included in original order: The Court finds the Title IV-D agency for Texas obtained the child support order in this suit without the health care coverage provisions required by Section 154.182 of the Texas Family Code.}

{Other reason for medical support modification: The Court finds that [Other reason for medical support modification]}

{No statutory grounds but parties agree: The Court finds that the parties have reached an independent agreement to the modification of the order.}

{History of violence, abuse, or neglect:

{History or pattern of abuse: The Court finds that [Name of person with supervised visitation] has a history or pattern of [past/present/past and present] [physical abuse/sexual abuse/child neglect/or any combination] directed against [Name of person subject to the abuse]. The Court finds that awarding [Name of person with supervised visitation] access to the child[ren], however, would not endanger the child[ren]’s physical health or emotional welfare and would be in the best interest of the child[ren].}

{History of family violence: The Court finds that [Name of person with supervised visitation] has a history or pattern of committing family violence during the two year period preceding the filing of this suit or during the pendency of this suit. The Court finds that awarding [Name of person with supervised visitation] access to the child[ren], however, would not endanger the child[ren]’s physical health or emotional welfare and would be in the best interest of the child[ren].}

{Rebuttal of parental presumption: The Court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the statutory presumptions set forth in Section 153.002(b) of the Texas Family Code have been rebutted. Specifically, the Court finds that the parent[s] [has/have] not acted in the best interest of the child[ren]; that it is not in the [child[ren]’s best interest to be in the care, custody, and control of the parent[s]; and that denial of the relief requested by the nonparent would significantly impair the child[ren]’s physical health or emotional development. The Court’s findings are based on the following specific facts: [Specific facts that support findings for nonparent and the extent to which the presumption was overcome]}

{Contempt finding per 156.107 TFC: The Court finds that ~Q54017L was previously found in contempt of court at least three times for failure to comply with the terms of the Order.

The Court further finds that [Name of conservator with 4th finding of contempt] was, again, found to be in contempt of court for the denial of court-ordered possession of or access to the child[ren] on [date]. Pursuant to Section 156.107 of the Texas Family Code, [Name of conservator with 4th finding of contempt] failure to comply with the terms of the Order constitutes a material and substantial change of circumstances sufficient to justify modification of the Order.

The Court's findings are based on the following specific facts: [Facts for finding of contempt under 156.107 TFC]}

Modification Granted

The Court finds that the allegations in the Petition to Modify Parent-Child Relationship have merit and that the modifications requested by [Movant(s)] are in the best interests of the child[ren]. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that the Petition to Modify Parent-Child Relationship is GRANTED.

{optional: Parenting Plan

{Agreed: The Court finds that the parties have agreed on a final parenting plan and that a written agreed parenting plan has been filed with the Court. After consideration of all facts of this suit and the best interests of the child[ren], the Court finds that the agreed parenting plan is in the best interests of the child[ren].}

{Court Ordered Parenting Plan: After consideration of all facts of this suit, the arguments of the parties, and the best interests of the child[ren], the Court finds that the parties have not submitted a parenting plan that is in the best interests of the child[ren], and a court-ordered parenting plan is in the best interests of the child[ren].}

Accordingly, the Court finds that the provisions in this Order setting out the rights and duties of the parties in relation to the child[ren], providing for periods of possession of and access to the child[ren], providing for child support, and optimizing the development of a close and continuing relationship between each parent and the child[ren], shall serve as the parenting plan required by Section 153.603 of the Texas Family Code.}}

(b) Summer Weekend Possession. If [primary conservator] gives [non-primary conservator(s)] written notice by April 15 of each year, [primary conservator] shall have possession of the child on any one weekend beginning Friday at 6 p.m. and ending at 6 p.m. on the following Sunday during one period of the extended summer possession by [non-primary conservator(s)], provided that [primary conservator] picks up the child from [non-primary conservator(s)] and returns the child[ren] to that same place.

(c) Additional Summer Weekend Possession. If [primary conservator] gives [non-primary conservator(s)] written notice by April 15 of each year or gives [non-primary conservator(s)] 14 days written notice on or after April 16 of a year, [primary conservator] may designate one weekend beginning no earlier than the day after [the/each] child's school is dismissed for the summer vacation and ending no later than 7 days before school resumes at the end of the summer vacation, during which an otherwise scheduled weekend period of possession by [non-primary conservator(s)] shall not take place in that year, provided that the weekend designated does not interfere with [non-primary conservator(s)]'s period or periods of extended summer possession.

(d) Location of Pickup and Return. Additionally, after receiving notice from [primary conservator] designating the summer weekend during which [primary conservator] is to have possession of the child, [non-primary conservator(s)], not later than the 15th day before the Friday that begins that designated weekend, must give [primary conservator] written notice of the location at which [primary conservator] is to pick up and return the child.

Conservators Who Reside Over 100 Miles Apart

IT IS ORDERED that, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Order, when [non-primary conservator] resides more than 100 miles from the residence of the child, [non-primary conservator(s)] shall have the right to possession of the child as follows:

(a) Weekends

{If Conservators currently live over 100 miles apart:

{Conservator does not elect possession one weekend per month: (i) During Regular School Term. {Conservator does select one weekend per month: (iii) Provided that [non-primary conservator(s)] give[s] [primary conservator] 14 days written or telephonic notice preceding a designated weekend, [non-primary conservator(s)] shall have the right to possession of the child not more than one weekend per month, of [non-primary conservator]'s choice, beginning at [6 p.m./custom start time] on Friday and ending at [6 p.m. on Sunday/custom end time].}}

{If Conservators currently do not live over 100 miles apart:

(iv) Alternate Weekend Option. In lieu of the alternating weekend possession schedule in the previous paragraphs, [non-primary conservator(s)] may elect to have possession of the child not more than one weekend per month of the [non-primary conservator(s)]'s choice beginning at 6 p.m. on the day school recesses for the weekend and ending at 6 p.m. on the day before school resumes after the weekend, provided that [non-primary conservator(s)] give[s] [primary conservator] 14 days' written or telephonic notice preceding a designated weekend, and provided that [non-primary conservator(s)] elect[s] an option for this alternative period of possession by written notice given to [primary conservator] within 90 days after the parties begin to reside more than 100 miles apart. [non-primary conservator(s)] may not choose weekends under this alternate option that conflict with rights of possession granted to [primary conservator] in other parts of this Order.}

(b) Weekend Possession Extended by Holiday

(i) Friday Holidays. If a weekend period of possession coincides with a student holiday or teacher in-service day that falls on a Friday during the regular school term, as determined by the school in which the child is enrolled, the weekend possession shall begin at [6 p.m./the time the child's school is regularly dismissed/custom start time] on Thursday. When a federal, state, or local holiday falls on a Friday during the summer months in which school is not in session, the weekend possession shall begin at [6 p.m./custom start time] on Thursday.

(ii) Monday Holidays. If a weekend period of possession coincides with a student holiday or teacher in-service day that falls on a Monday during the regular school term, as determined by the school in which the child is enrolled, the weekend possession shall end at [6 p.m. on Monday/8 a.m. on Tuesday/the time the child's school resumes on Tuesday/custom end time]. When a federal, state, or local holiday falls on a Monday during the summer months in which school is not in session, the weekend possession shall end at [6 p.m. on Monday/custom end time].

(c) Spring Vacation. [non-primary conservator(s)] shall have possession of the child every year beginning at [6 p.m. on the day school is dismissed/the time the child's school is dismissed/on the day the child's school is dismissed] for the school's spring vacation and ending at 6 p.m. on the day before school resumes after that vacation.

(d) Extended Periods of Summer Possession

(i) With Written Notice by April 1. If [non-primary conservator(s)] give[s] [primary conservator] written notice by April 1 of each year specifying an extended period or periods of summer possession, [non-primary conservator(s)] shall have possession of the child for 42 days beginning no earlier than the day after the child's school is dismissed for the summer vacation and ending no later than 7 days before school resumes at the end of the summer vacation, to be exercised in no more than two separate periods of at least 7 consecutive days each, with each period of possession beginning at [6 p.m./custom start time] and ending at [6 p.m./custom end time].

(ii) Without Written Notice by April 1. If [non-primary conservator] does not give [primary conservator] written notice by April 1 of each year specifying an extended period or periods of summer possession, [non-primary conservator] shall have possession of the child for 42 consecutive days in that year beginning at 6 p.m. on June 15 and ending at 6 p.m. on July 27.

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Possession Order, it is expressly ORDERED that [primary conservator] shall have right to possession of the child[ren] as follows:

(a) Summer Weekend Possession by [primary conservator] —

If [primary conservator] gives [non-primary conservator(s)] written notice by April 15 of a year, [primary conservator] shall have possession of the child on any one weekend beginning at 6 p.m. on Friday and ending at 6 p.m. on the following Sunday during any one period of possession by [non-primary conservator(s)] during [non-primary conservator(s)]'s extended summer possession in that year, provided that if a period of possession by [non-primary conservator(s)] in that year exceeds 30 days, [primary conservator] may have possession of the child under the terms of this provision on any two nonconsecutive weekends during that period and provided that [primary conservator] picks up the child from [non-primary conservator(s)] and returns the child to that same place and that no weekend so designated interferes with Father's Day possession.

(b) Extended Summer Possession by [primary conservator] —

If [primary conservator] gives [non-primary conservator(s)] written notice by April 15 of a year, [primary conservator] may designate 21 days beginning no earlier than the day after the child's school is dismissed for the summer vacation and ending no later than seven days before school resumes at the end of the summer vacation in that year, to be exercised in no more than two separate periods of at least seven consecutive days each, during which [non-primary conservator(s)] shall not have possession of the child, provided that the period or periods so designated do not interfere with [non-primary conservator(s)]'s period or periods of extended summer possession or with Father's Day possession. These periods of possession shall begin and end at 6 p.m. on each applicable day.

{Fifth Fridays

There are usually four months every year in which there are five Fridays. [primary conservator] and [non-primary conservator(s)] will alternate the weekends that begin on the fifth Friday of the month, beginning with [primary conservator] having possession of the child the weekend beginning [date on which first fifth Friday possession will begin]. [non-primary conservator(s)] shall have the next fifth Friday and the parties will alternate each fifth weekend thereafter in this same order, unless otherwise agreed by the parties.}

Periods Not Designated

IT IS ORDERED that [primary conservator] shall have the right to possession of the child at all times that are not specifically designated as periods of possession for [non-primary conservator] in this Order.

General Terms and Conditions

Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Order, the following general terms and conditions of possession of a child apply without regard to the distance between the residence of a conservator and the child:

{No split custody: (a) Surrender of Child by [primary conservator].
 [primary conservator] shall surrender the child to [non-primary conservator] at the beginning of each period of [non-primary conservator(s)]'s possession at the residence of [primary conservator]. If [non-primary conservator(s)]'s period of possession begins at the time the child's school is regularly dismissed, [primary conservator] shall surrender the child to [non-primary conservator(s)] at the beginning of each period of possession at the school in which the child is enrolled, [non-primary conservator(s)] will pick up the child at the child's school upon school dismissal.

(b) Surrender of Child by [non-primary conservator(s)]. At the end of each period of [non-primary conservator(s)]'s possession, [non-primary conservator(s)] shall {Surrender the child at the end of possession: surrender the child to [primary conservator] at the residence of [non-primary conservator(s)]} {Return the child at the end of possession: return the child to the residence of [primary conservator]}. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, [non-primary conservator(s)] shall surrender the child to [primary conservator] at [non-primary conservator(s)]'s residence if (1) the parties reside in the same county on the date a final Decree is entered in this matter and (2) [non-primary conservator(s)]'s county of residence remains the same after the rendition of the final Decree in this matter, and (3) [primary conservator]'s county of residence changes. This change of procedure will be effective on the date of the change of residence by [primary conservator]}. If [non-primary conservator(s)]'s period of possession ends at the time the child's school resumes, [non-primary conservator(s)] will surrender the child to [primary conservator] at the end of each period of possession at the school in which the child is enrolled.}

{Split custody: (a) Surrender of [children with first conservator] by [first conservator]. [first conservator] shall surrender [children with first conservator] to [second conservator] at the beginning of each period of [second conservator]'s possession at the residence of [first conservator]. If [second conservator]'s period of possession begins at the time the child[ren]'s school is regularly dismissed, [first conservator] shall surrender the child[ren] to [second conservator] at the beginning of each period of possession at the school in which the child[ren] [is/are] enrolled, [second conservator] will pick up the child[ren] at the child[ren]'s school upon school dismissal.

(b) Surrender of [children with first conservator] by [second conservator]. At the end of each period of [second conservator]'s possession, [second conservator] shall {Surrender the child at the end of possession: surrender the child[ren] to [first conservator] at the residence of [second conservator]} {Return the child at the end of possession: return the child[ren] to the residence of [first conservator]. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, [second conservator] shall surrender the child[ren] to [first conservator] at [second conservator]'s residence if (1) the parties reside in the same county on the date a final Decree is entered in this matter and (2) [second conservator]'s county of residence remains the same after the rendition of the final Decree in this matter, and (3) [first conservator]'s county of residence changes. This change of procedure will be effective on the date of the change of residence by [first conservator]}. If [second conservator]'s period of possession ends at the time the child[ren]'s school resumes, [second conservator] shall surrender the child[ren] to [first conservator] at the end of each period of possession at the school in which the child[ren] [is/are] enrolled.

(c) Surrender of [children with second conservator] by [second conservator]. [second conservator] shall surrender [children with second conservator] to [first conservator] at the beginning of each period of [first conservator]'s possession at the residence of [first conservator]. If [first conservator]'s possession begins at the time the child[ren]'s school is regularly dismissed, [second conservator] shall surrender the child[ren] to [first conservator] at the school in which the child[ren] [is/are] enrolled and [first conservator] shall pick up the child[ren] at the [child/child]'s school upon school dismissal.

(d) Surrender of [children with second conservator] by [first conservator]. At the end of each period of [first conservator]'s possession, [first conservator] shall {Surrender child at end of possession: surrender [children with second conservator] to [second conservator] at the residence of [first conservator].}{Return child at end of possession: return [children with second conservator] to the residence of [second conservator]. This change of procedure will be effective on the date of the change of residence by [second conservator]} If [first conservator]'s period of possession ends at the time the child[ren] 's school resumes, [first conservator] shall surrender the child[ren] to [second conservator] at the school in which the child[ren] [is/are] enrolled.}

(c/e) Personal Effects. Each conservator shall return with the child the personal effects that the child brought at the beginning of the period of possession.

(d/f) Designation of Competent Adult. Either conservator may designate a competent adult to pick up and return the child, as applicable. A conservator or a designated competent adult shall be present when the child is picked up or returned.

(e/g) Inability to Exercise Possession. A conservator shall give notice to the person in possession of the child on each occasion that the conservator will be unable to exercise that conservator's right of possession for a specified period.

(f/h) Written Notice. Written notice, including notice provided by electronic mail or facsimile, shall be deemed to have been timely made if received or, if applicable, postmarked before or at the time that notice is due.

(g/i) Notice to School and Conservator Not in Possession. If a conservator's time of possession of a child ends at the time school resumes and for any reason the child is not or will not be returned to school, the conservator in possession of the child shall immediately notify the school and the other conservator that the child will not be or has not been returned to school.}

{Disagreement or Confusion Over Possession Schedule

The parties agree that, except in an emergency, before filing any suit for modification, clarification, or enforcement of the terms and conditions of possession of the child, the parties shall mediate the controversy in good faith. The parties agree that any party wishing to modify, clarify, or enforce this possession order shall give written notice to the other party of the desire to take the controversy to a mediator. If, within five days after receipt of the written notice, the parties cannot agree on a mediator or the other party does not agree to attend or fails to attend a scheduled mediation, the party desiring modification, clarification, or enforcement shall be released from the obligation to mediate the controversy.}}

(ii) 6 months-18 months – Possession may occur outside the Custodial Location at [the non-primary conservator/the possessory conservator/name of second conservator]'s option. [The primary conservator/The sole managing conservator/Conservator with primary weekday conservatorship] shall provide an infant car seat and any breast milk or formula which the child[ren] may need during the visit. Possession shall be from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. one evening per week (to be designated by [the non-primary or possessory conservator]) and on the 1st, 3rd, and 5th Saturdays of each month from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m.

(iii) 18 months-3 years – Possession shall be 1st, 3rd, and 5th weekends from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday and further on December 25th and 26th, Thanksgiving Day, January 1st, Easter Sunday and 4th of July, [Father's/Mother's] Day, and [the/each] child's birthday from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m. [Upon reaching the age of two, [the/each] child shall begin overnight possession on a standard schedule.]

(c) Parents residing more than 100 miles apart:

At the option of [the non-primary or possessory conservator], possession may follow the same schedule as those for less than 100 miles, otherwise:

(i) 0-6 months – Possession shall occur at the Custodial Location. Possession shall occur between the hours of 9 a.m. and 6 p.m. on any Saturday and Sunday [the non-primary or possessory conservator] shall be in town.

(ii) 6 months-18 months – Possession shall occur as set forth above, however, [the non-primary or possessory conservator] may take the child from the Custodial Location for two periods during each day not to exceed two hours each.

(iii) 18 months-3 years – Possession shall occur on any designated weekend (no more than 2 weekends per month to be designated by [the non-primary or possessory conservator] giving [the primary conservator/the sole managing conservator/conservator with primary weekday conservatorship] at least 14 days notice) between the hours of 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. [the non-primary or possessory conservator] shall also have possession of the child[ren] from 1p.m. to 6 p.m. on December 25th and 26th and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day, 4th of July, [Father's/Mother's] Day, and [the/each] child's birthday.}}

{Means of travel and long distance access and visitation: Means of Travel and Long-Distance Access and Visitation

The Court finds {Agreed Order: and the parties have agreed} that, as long as the child[ren] [is/are] under the age of [age when travel provisions no longer apply], these Orders are in the best interest of the child[ren] and apply to all long-distance travel and possession periods of the child[ren].

IT IS ORDERED that [primary conservator] and [Name of Non-Primary Conservator] {Agreed Order: have agreed to these Orders and} shall each comply with the following travel-related orders affecting the child[ren].

{Minimum age for child traveling alone: IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that until the child[ren] [reach/reaches] [minimum age for unaccompanied travel] years of age, the child[ren] shall not travel alone between the conservators' respective residences.}

{Adult traveling with child: {Competent adult designated to travel with child: IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that either parent may designate a competent adult, who is known to the child[ren], to accompany the child[ren] when traveling between the conservators' respective residences.}

{Non-primary conservator to travel with child: IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that [the non-primary or possessory conservator] shall accompany the child[ren] when traveling between the conservators' respective residences, at both the beginning and at the end of [the non-primary or possessory conservator] 's possession periods.}}

{Travel expenses: {Travel expenses split 50/50: IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that [Name of Petitioner] and [Name of Respondent] shall each pay one-half of all travel expenses, including air fares, bag and escort fees, and any other travel expense related to the child[ren]'s travel between the conservators' respective residences.}

{Travel expenses paid by non-primary conservator: IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that [the non-primary or possessory conservator] shall pay all expenses, including air fares, bag and escort fees, or any other travel expense related to the child[ren]'s travel for each period of possession of the child[ren] by [the non-primary or possessory conservator] from the time [the non-primary or possessory conservator] takes possession of the child[ren] from [Name/ the sole managing conservator] to the time [the non-primary or possessory conservator] surrenders possession of the child[ren] to [Name/ the sole managing conservator].}}

IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that when the parties agree that the child[ren] may travel, either one-way or round-trip, as an unaccompanied passenger on a commercial flight when traveling between the conservators' respective residences, that [the non-primary or possessory conservator] shall make all necessary arrangements for the child[ren], including confirmed reservations and payment, on regularly scheduled, "non-equipment change" flights by a major commercial passenger airline.

IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that any airline reservations made for the child[ren] shall: depart from, and return to, as applicable, the commercial airport nearest to [each party/name of primary conservator]'s residence, and whenever possible, offer the best combination of shortest overall travel time and fewest stops.

IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that the party making airline travel arrangements shall provide all of the child[ren]'s travel information to the other party in writing at least [number of days] days prior to the scheduled departure date for each flight.

IT IS ORDERED that the travel information shall include the airport name, the airline, flight number, departure date and time and arrival date and time for each flight along with any special instructions from the airline for a child traveling alone.

{Child not traveling with adult: IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that [Name/ the sole managing conservator] shall surrender possession of the child[ren] to an authorized flight attendant, employed by the designated airline, and who also will be flying on the child[ren]'s scheduled flight.}

IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that [the non-primary or possessory conservator] shall take possession of the child[ren] at the airport where the child[ren]'s flight is scheduled to arrive, at the gate the designated airline assigns for that flight's arrival and disembarkation.

IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that if, while in the possession of a conservator or other designated competent adult, the child[ren] [is/are] not able to depart on a scheduled flight, or if that scheduled flight is unreasonably delayed or canceled, that the conservator or other designated competent adult shall notify the other conservator immediately. IT IS ORDERED that if the child[ren] [miss/misses] a scheduled flight while in a conservator's or other designated competent adult's possession, that the conservator shall schedule an alternate "non-equipment change" flight and pay any expense related to the missed flight, including ticket modification or re-ticketing fees or charges, and any fare differential, and notify the other conservator of the date and time of the alternate flight as soon as the alternate flight is confirmed.

IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that, in compliance with these orders, the conservator making travel arrangements shall purchase the airline [ticket/tickets] in advance, including escort fees and bag fees, for the child[ren]'s travel to and from, or to, or from, the child[ren]'s primary residence.

IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that, in compliance with these orders, the conservator who purchases airline tickets shall arrange with the airline and the other conservator for delivery of the airline tickets and any associated receipts for fees to the other conservator prior to the child[ren]'s travel, as necessary. IT IS ORDERED [and the parties have agreed] that, in compliance with these orders, the applicable conservator shall reimburse the other conservator for travel expenses for the child[ren] in the event of circumstances beyond the conservator's control while in possession of the child[ren].

{Custom travel provisions: IT IS ORDERED that [Customized travel provisions]}

Suspension of income withholding: Suspension of Income Withholding

The Court finds that [good cause exists so/the parties have agreed] that no order withholding income should issue or be delivered to any employer of [obligor] unless the Office of the Attorney General Child Support Division is providing services to [Obligee], or until [obligor] has been in arrears for an amount due for more than 30 days, the amount of the arrearages equals or is greater than the amount due for a one-month period, or any other violation of the child support order has occurred.

In the event that the Office of the Attorney General Child Support Division begins providing services to [Obligee], or if [obligor] has been in arrears for an amount due for more than 30 days, the amount of the arrearages equals or is greater than the amount due for a one-month period, or any other violation of the child support order has occurred, IT IS ORDERED that all payments of child support shall be made pursuant to the Orders for Withholding of Child Support stated below.}

Withholding for Child Support

As used in this Order for Withholding for Child Support, the following words have these meanings:

- (a) "Earnings" means payments to or due [obligor], regardless of source and how denominated. The term includes: periodic or lump-sum payments for wages, salary, compensation received as an independent contractor, overtime pay, severance pay, commission, bonus, and interest income; as well as periodic or lump-sum payments made under a pension, an annuity, workers' compensation, and a disability or retirement program; unemployment benefits; compensation from a transportation network company as defined by Section 2402.001, Occupations Code; and compensation from a person that operates a technology platform used to make deliveries to customers.

(b) "Disposable earnings" means that part of the earnings of [obligor] remaining after the deduction from those earnings of any amounts required by law to be withheld for union dues, nondiscretionary retirement contributions, and medical, hospitalization, and disability insurance coverage for [obligor] and [obligor]'s child[ren].

IT IS ORDERED that any employer of [obligor] shall withhold for child support from [obligor]'s disposable earnings.

IT IS ORDERED that a credit against [obligor]'s child support obligation is created equal to all amounts withheld by the employer and paid in compliance with this Court's Order.

IT IS ORDERED that [obligor]'s child support obligation is discharged by payment of the full amount of child support ordered to be paid under this Order by means of withholding from [obligor]'s earnings.

IT IS ORDERED that if the amount withheld from [obligor]'s earnings and credited against the child support obligations is less than 100 percent of the amount ordered to be paid under this Order, the resulting balance constitutes a continuing obligation of [obligor], which [obligor] is ORDERED to pay directly to the state disbursement unit as described in this Order.

IT IS ORDERED that the employer shall remit payments of child support [, medical support, and dental support] to the state disbursement unit and the state disbursement unit should promptly remit the payments {Regular child support: to [child support oblige] for the support of [Names of children]} {Support for disabled adult child to be paid directly to special needs trust: [and] to the special needs trust for the support of [name of disabled child]}.

IT IS ORDERED that if [obligor]'s employer's address changes, or if [obligor]'s employment terminates, [obligor] shall notify this Court and [Obligee] of either event, by U.S. certified mail, return receipt requested, within 7 days after the occurrence of the event. Contained in the above notice, or as soon as new information becomes available, [obligor] IS FURTHER ORDERED to provide this Court and [Obligee], as applicable, with [obligor]'s current address, and the name and address of [obligor]'s current employer.

The court clerk will send a certified copy of the Income Withholding for Support to the employer upon request from a prosecuting attorney, Title IV-D agency, friend of the court, domestic relations office, party to this suit, or an attorney representing a party to this suit.

The parties understand and agree that communications made during the collaborative family law process and any records of such communications are privileged, not subject to disclosure, and may not be used as evidence against a party or other participant in a subsequent proceeding.

Neutral Consultant

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the parties agree to jointly engage a professional, expert, or advisor to serve in a neutral capacity and consult with the parties regarding the matter and resolutions that best serve the interests of the parties {With children: and the child[ren]}. The parties further agree that each party shall be responsible for one-half of the total costs for engaging the consultant.

The parties agree that a consultant participating in the collaborative family law process may not testify in a subsequent proceeding related to or arising out of the collaborative family law matter or may not be subject to a process requiring disclosure of privileged information or data related to the collaborative matter unless otherwise agreed by the parties.

Agreement to Hire Collaborative Lawyers

The parties agree to each hire a collaborative lawyer to represent the party in the collaborative family law process. Although the parties are not required to arrive at a resolution of the collaborative matter, if the parties do not arrive at a resolution through the collaborative family law process or if the collaborative process terminates before a resolution is reached, the parties agree that each party's collaborative lawyer must withdraw from the representation.

Failure to Resolve Matter

The parties agree to participate in at least one joint meeting between the parties and their respective collaborative lawyers to resolve the collaborative matter. After that initial meeting, if an agreement resolving the collaborative matter is not reached or the collaborative matter is only resolved in part, the parties understand that: they may agree to continue with the collaborative family law process until a resolution is reached; either or both parties may withdraw from the collaborative family law process; if the parties agree, the parties may participate in mediation in conjunction with the collaborative family law process; or the parties may take any other action authorized by the Collaborative Family Law Participation Agreement.

Exceptions to Collaborative Family Law Process

The parties understand and agree that a party who is entitled to receive child support shall not be required to enforce the obligation through the collaborative family law process and a party obligated to pay child support shall not be required to follow the collaborative family law process before seeking to reduce an obligation.}

{Mediation

Except in an emergency, the parties agree to attempt in good faith to resolve a dispute that arises through mediation before requesting modification of the terms and conditions of this Order through litigation. The parties agree that mediation shall not be required if a party seeks enforcement of this Order or any subsequent modifications of this Order.

The parties agree that the party who seeks the modification shall notify the other party in writing of the dispute within a reasonable time after the dispute arises, or shall provide other notice as otherwise agreed by the parties. The parties further agree to attempt to resolve the dispute within 30 days from the date of receipt of written notice of the dispute.

If, within 10 days after the receipt of written notice of the dispute, the parties cannot agree on a mediator or if one party refuses or fails to mediate, the parties agree that the party seeking modification may proceed to file suit. If the parties do mediate and an agreement resolving the dispute is not reached or the dispute is only resolved in part, the parties agree that the party seeking modification may proceed to file suit.}

{Arbitration

When a dispute between the parties is not resolved between the parties or through mediation, the parties agree to submit the dispute to binding arbitration pursuant to Chapter 171 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code. The parties agree to use a mutually-selected arbitrator, or if an arbitrator cannot be agreed upon, the parties agree to use an arbitrator of the court's choosing. The parties further agree that each party shall be responsible for one-half of the total costs of arbitration.}}
